

Career and Corporate Training
Pierpont Community & Technical College
500 Galliher Drive
Fairmont, WV 26554

304-367-4596
cct@pierpont.edu

Point of Care Technician

Effective March 2025

Description

The Point of Care Technician course prepares learners to work with biological samples and perform medical laboratory testing in near patient and medical laboratory settings. Learners will perform sample collection and a variety of testing procedures in student laboratory sessions. Learners will be taught about medical laboratory regulations and industry standard best practices. Point of Care Technicians are employed in hospitals, clinics, and physician offices.

Schedule

~5-Week Hybrid Format | In-person class weekly from 8:00 AM until 4:00 PM

Training cost:

$1,000. Payment is required at least 2 weeks prior to the start date of the course.

Financial Aid

Available for qualified applicants.

HEAPS Workforce Grant funds are available for qualified applicants.

To initiate the application, go to financial aid link

A FAFSA application and high school transcripts are required for approval.

Contact your Regional Workforce Development Office to determine eligibility for WIOA Training Scholarships Region 6 <https://regionviwv.org/training-education/wioa-training-scholarships/>

Minimum Requirements:

No prerequisites.

Course Materials & Supplies

Students receive a textbook and classroom supplies included in the course fee.

Certification

Education that Works!

Pierpont Community & Technical College is an Equal Opportunity, Affirmative Action Institution

Upon completion of the training, students will be eligible to sit for the Point of Care Technician Licensure exam. Exam cost is not included in the cost of the training tuition.

Accommodations Statement:

If you have or had an IEP or 504 Plan in high school or if you think you have a disability that might interfere with your completion of this class, contact Pierpont's Support Services for information about possible accommodations at access@pierpont.edu or 304-534-7878.

Course Schedule*